

HEALTH BENEFITS OF TRANSIT INVESTMENT

Photo by Deyan Denchev

FREE PANEL DISCUSSION - FOR MORE INFORMATION: <http://bit.ly/1A6VwGe>

MARCH 9TH 4:30 - 6:00PM (RECEPTION 6:00 - 7:00PM)

Overview

Explore the critical link between transit and health. You are invited to an expert panel discussion on transit's role in building a livable healthy region, promoting walking and biking, reducing sedentary time in cars, and improving air quality.

Dr. Patricia Daly

Chief Medical Health Officer & Vice President of Public Health, Vancouver Coastal Health Authority

Bob Ransford

Campaign Manager
Mayors' Council Referendum Secretariat

Dr. Anthony Perl

Professor of Urban Studies & Political Science
Simon Fraser University

Dr. Lawrence Frank

Professor - School of Population and Public Health / Community and Regional Planning & Health and Community Design Lab, Director

Dr. Jennifer Gardy

Assistant Professor
School of Population and Public Health, UBC

Patrick Condon

Urban Design, Chair & Professor, School of Architecture and Landscape Architecture, UBC

EVENT ORGANISER

HEALTH & COMMUNITY DESIGN LAB

School of Population and Public Health

health-design.spph.ubc.ca/

SPONSORS

Better Transit and Transportation Coalition for our economy, our environment and your quality of life

MICHAEL SMITH LABS (2185 EAST MALL, UBC) ROOM 101-102

